

PLUTO SITE A CIVILS

INTRODUCTION

The Pluto Site A Civil Project is a 22M civil concrete construction project of as part of the new Woodside Pluto LNG Gas Plant, involving the construction of:

- A Bund Wall of (8m high – 600m long) and
- A series of 150 pipe rack footings

LOCATION

The project is located on the Burrup Peninsula near Dampier in the Pilbara Region.

CLIENT

Decmil Australia

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES

The main construction activities on the project include:

- Manage construction teams
- Place and finish blinding concrete for bases
- Supply, construct and place formwork
- Place and tie steel reinforcing and embedded items
- Place and finish concrete
- Apply Killarnee Formwork HS&E Systems in accordance with site requirements Compliance with site procedures

ASSOCIATED ACTIVITIES

Associated activities include:

- Contract management
- Human resources management, including recruitment and mobilization of personnel
- Plant management, maintenance and operation
- Application of the Killarnee Formwork Business Management System

KEY PERSONNEL

The key personnel on the project are:

- Project Manager – Darcy Kealley
- HS&E Advisor – Bill Bertolini
- Engineer – Aiden Dorgan
- Superintendent – Raymond Perkins
- Superintendent – Larry Innes
- Site Administrator – Rina Pirie